Mr. William Ligon, and Daughter, Mary Ligon, and are to have the use of it, so far as shall belong to the remainder of my Executors hereafter named.
I have my will is that my son, Nathaniel, Ligon, in law, your father, Mary, or she shall have it, not to put it to the use of another until he arrive or is due to the age of one and years. And then John, his eldest son, be not put to the use of the trustees, until he come to his twenty-first year. All the slaves shall be in the discretion of my Executors to dispose of them at what age they shall think fit.

Item, I do make and appoint my loving son, Nathaniel, Ligon, and my beloved friend, John Denson, attorney of this my last will and testament, whereof I have hereunto put my hand this 17th day of October, 1678.

Sealed and Delivered

John Ligon

in the presence of

Rebecca Ligon

Under the following hands:

William Jones

Subscribed their hands

Dundie Copinger

Memorial that this will was made by the oathes of Dundie Copinger and William Jones, who were sworn in the parish of St. Mary, on the 9th day of March 9th before me, and that I have hereunto signed myself, John Ligon, to take the oath upon the grant to Nathaniel Ligon.