May 21, 1735

Came Thomas Gillis, Henry Dobson, James Dobson, subscribing to the writing of the within Deed on the holy gob and believing it to be the last will and Testament of John Gillis. The party of the first part named John Gillis, and the party of the second part named James Dobson, do give to the party of the second part a certain messuage or tenement, and the appurtenances thereunto belonging, for and in consideration of certain money paid by the party of the second part to the party of the first part. The party of the second part doth hereby covenant, grant, and convey unto the party of the first part all and singular the aforesaid messuage or tenement, and the appurtenances thereunto belonging, to the party of the second part forever. The aforesaid messuage or tenement is situate and bounded as follows:

The within Deed is made and delivered in the presence of the following witnesses:

Henry Dobson
George Gillis

Signed, sealed, published, and declared to be the last will and Testament of John Gillis, to the party of the first part, and of the within Deed of the party of the second part, by virtue of the Power and Authority in the said Deed given in consideration of the money paid to the party of the first part.

Thomas Gillis
Henry Dobson
