In the name of God amen, Thomas Hunter of Linnet county in the Province of Maryland being of perfect mind and memory thanks be to all mighty God for the same, and considering the shortness of human life Do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following.

I give to my daughter Renee Newton one Shilling Sterling and no other part of my estate whatsoever.

I give to Isaac Board one Shilling Sterling and no other part of my estate whatsoever.

I give to Hannah Newton one Shilling Sterling and no other part of my estate whatsoever.

I give to my daughter Mary Board one Shilling Sterling and no other part of my estate whatsoever.

I give to my daughter Anna Board one Shilling Sterling and no other part of my estate whatsoever.

I give the residue and remnant of my estate except the legacy above mentioned to my son Thomas Newton to be held and disposed of by my son Thomas Newton and my daughter Anna Newton during the time of their minority and then and after their minority to be disposed of by my son Thomas Newton.

Done this 17th day of November 1764.

Legatees to be acknowledged.

In the Presence of

Thomas Newton
Louisa Dobson
Louisa Dobson
I gave to my daughter Anna Young, one Hellings Hunter and one other part of my estate whatever, one gallon of liquors, and two hundred pounds of hay. To my daughter Mary Hellings and one other part of my estate, except the hay above mentioned which she has already received. To my wife a sum of money as is that there should be an administration on my estate and that all the remaining part besides the liquors above mentioned if four of liquors to my son, Thomas, and my daughter, Mary Hellings Hunter when her husband shall be legally married, and all the rest of my estate to be disposed of at the discretion of my executor, Thomas Hellings Hunter, executor of the will of the above Thomas Hellings Hunter, deceased. And this I do this 23rd day of December, 1770.

Signed, sealed, acknowledged. In the presence of...